The Ballpoint Pen

Ballpoint pens have not been around for very long. John Loud invented the first ballpoint pen in 1888. Before the invention of ballpoint pens, people had to dip their pens into ink when they were writing. This made writing slow. Also, sometimes too much ink made the writing messy. Ballpoint pens were the first pens that did not need to be dipped in ink. Laud's invention was wonderful, but the design was still not perfect. Sometimes the pen did not get enough ink, and sometimes it got too much ink. Other inventors continued to work on the design of the ballpoint pen to improve it. For the next 30 years, inventors created over 350 kinds of ballpoint pens. But still the pens did not work very well, and people did not buy them. It wasn't until 1935 that Ladislav Biro and his brother developed an improved ballpoint pen in Hungary. Today, in the U.K. and Australia, some people call ballpoint pens biros after their inventor.

George has been working as a taxi driver for nine years. His best friend is Ted. They have been friends since childhood. George has a big family, so he must work long hours to be able to provide a good life for his wife and children. He works from 6 O'clock in the morning till midnight. Sometimes, he would take the evening shift and works until dawn if he is too tired to work in the morning. George meets a lot of people from different backgrounds, the people whom he meets during the night shift are more interesting. They work in hotels, factories, and hospitals. On the other hand, some passengers are businessmen working late in their offices. Some of his passengers are rude or difficult, but George is always patient with them. When he arrives home from works, he usually takes a shower, and has a meat with the rest of his family. He often watches TV with his wife at 7 p.m. on Friday. Read the following text then answer the questions:

Let me tell you how I met my best friend, Yousef. Yousef and I went to the same elementary school. Yousef was a new 6th grade student, and the teacher asked me to show him around during his first week. I agreed to help out, and we spent every day together. Yousef grew up in Abha, and his family moved when his father got a new job in Jeddah. He didn't know anyone, so I introduced him to my friends and classmates. At first he was quite shy, but then he grew more confident and joined in discussions. He was very interested in sports and asked lots of questions about the school football team. After school, he came with me to football practice. At first, he just watched, but then he wanted to play. He didn't play well at first, but he tried very hard. And now Yousef is the best player on the team!

Read the following text then answer the questions:

Let me tell you how I met my best friend, Yousef. Yousef and I went to the same elementary school. Yousef was a new 6th grade student, and the teacher asked me to show him around during his first week. I agreed to help out, and we spent every day together. Yousef grew up in Abha, and his family moved when his father got a new job in Jeddah. He didn't know anyone, so I introduced him to my friends and classmates. At first he was quite shy, but then he grew more confident and joined in discussions. He was very interested in sports and asked lots of questions about the school football team. After school, he came with me to football practice. At first, he just watched, but then he wanted to play. He didn't play well at first, but he tried very hard. And now Yousef is the best player on the team!
